Are You Ready to Make a Lifestyle Change?

Before embarking on a lifestyle change program, ask yourself the following questions.

- 1) Compared to previous attempts, how motivated are you to lose weight/change your eating habits at this time? Very Motivated_____, Somewhat Motivated _____
- 2) Is there something about this time that is likely to make you successful?
Yes_____ No_____
- 3) Consider all outside factors at this time in your life (the stress you're feeling at work, your family obligations, etc.) Are you determined to put in the effort required to stick to a program? Can you see yourself cooking healthy meals and exercising one year from now? Yes_____ No_____
- 4) Think honestly about how much weight you hope to lose and how quickly you hope to lose it. A weight loss of one to two pounds per week is a healthy weight loss, how realistic is your expectation? Realistic_____ Unrealistic_____
- 5) Are you prepared to work exercise into your daily/weekly schedule?
Yes_____ No_____
- 6) Are you willing to give up some foods in an effort to lose weight, control your diabetes, manage your cholesterol etc? Yes_____ No_____
- 7) Do you have supportive friends, coworkers and/or family who will support you in your efforts? Yes_____, No_____
- 8) Do you eat when you are stressed, anxious, lonely or bored? Yes_____ No_____ If yes, are you prepared to look for other strategies to manage these occasions? Yes_____, No_____
- 9) Do you binge eat? Do you use laxatives, or induce vomiting. Yes_____, No_____ These are symptoms of several eating disorders.

If you answered positively to questions 1-7 you are likely readily to make a lifestyle change.

If you answered yes to questions 8 & 9, you may need to seek counselling to manage these problems prior to starting a weight loss plan.

If after answering these questions you feel the time is right for you to make a lifestyle change, please answer the following questionnaire. If you are in doubt, you may call Sandi to discuss your concerns.
